GOALS

The primary purpose of the small animal medicine service is the teaching of clinical medicine to veterinary students through the use of clinical cases.

1. The small animal medicine faculty will be available to assist private practitioners on an appointment basis in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of referral cases.
2. The small animal medicine faculty will provide telephone consultation to veterinarians as time and resources allow.
3. The small animal medicine faculty will provide in-house consultation to other service areas.
